Hi Julien,

Thanks for the message.

The figure I provided to you yesterday was $3.6 million from the DSIBs (as at Friday evening). The figure I received from the non-DSIB was $3.8 million from the one corporate account (as at Friday evening). That equals $7.4 million (as at Friday evening).

The $4.2 million that you are referring to what the DSIBs and the non-DSIB would have froze on Friday. I added the $3.8 million from the non-DSIB to the $400K from the DSIBs had frozen on Friday that I had already provided to you.

Also, just to confirm. Yesterday's amount in your report of $3.6 million plus de new amount of $4.2 million from the one non-bank FI today would actually mean that the latest figure would be approximately $7.8 million? However the figure you have in the latest table is $7.4million.

That is correct Julien. It was a corporate account that was frozen.

[REDACTED] Just to confirm then that the difference between the numbers you provided yesterday (125 accounts frozen for a value of approximately $3.6 million) and this evening's numbers (126 accounts frozen worth approximately $7.4 million) is the report of a single non-DSIB that to itself froze $4,241,917.60$?

Just want to make sure we've got that right as that is a significant increase for a single FI.

Julien

Hi Julien,

As promised, I've updated the Financial Data Report with the data from a non-DSIB as at end of Friday.

I'll work on getting updated data from the weekend from the others for tomorrow AM. Hopefully this will suffice if I can't.

Please let me know what your deadline is tomorrow morning.

Hi Julien,

Thanks for this.

A couple of things:

- I'll be able to provide you with an updated number as a non-DSIB has provided me with data.
- I'll ask the DSIBs for updated numbers in a moment. Given that it's a Sunday or a long weekend, I'm not certain how much of a response I will get. What's your deadline tomorrow morning?

Good morning Julien and Richard,

Attached is the financial data report for the business day ending Friday, February 18th for just the DSIBs.

Note that we started tracking dollar amounts frozen under the credit lines. That number is incomplete as not every bank was got us the dollar amounts starting yesterday. I expect to have a more complete picture in our next report on Monday, February 21st, which will cover Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

In the meantime, please feel free to reach out to me if you have any questions.

Take care. And stay safe and healthy.
